Head Coach Sean McCaffrey looks to lead the Colby-Sawyer men’s tennis team back to another The Commonwealth Coast Conference (TCCC) championship match this year. TCCC championship match appearances have become a regular occurrence for the successful men’s squad, making an appearance four of the past five seasons.

“We are looking to finish in the top two or three in the regular season. That is the bar that has been set and that’s what we are shooting for,” said Coach McCaffrey, in his third season at the helm of the men’s program.

Leading the way for the veteran Chargers squad is a core of three seniors and three juniors. In all, eight players are back from last season’s TCCC runner-up squad that finished 14-5 overall and 7-1 in TCCC play. Justin Tardif (Bidd,eford, Maine), Brendan O’Neill (South Kingstown, R.I.) and Trevor Davis (Bath, Maine) are the three seniors on the roster and bring a considerable amount of experience to the team this year.

Tardif is the team captain and will be looked to for leadership after a successful season last year. His 13 doubles wins led the team and his 12 singles wins were second on the team.

“Justin is a very versatile player who can hang out and play at the baseline or he can come to the net,” said Coach McCaffrey. “He’ll be playing in one of the top positions for us and we’re looking for another great year from him.”

O’Neill played almost every match at No. 1 for the Chargers last year, but still managed four wins in singles and five wins in doubles play.

“Brendan is probably the hardest hitting player on the team,” said Coach McCaffrey. “He has really worked on his consistency so we are expecting a lot from him this season.”

Davis tallied five wins in singles play to go along with two victories in doubles.

“Trevor has been playing as the number five and six the past couple of years,” said Coach McCaffrey. “With a smaller roster, we are looking for him to continue to excel in that role with more playing time and opportunities.”

The junior class also has three members, Evan Campbell (White River Junction, Vt.), Ryan Murray (Killingworth, Conn.) and Ben Taylor (Derry, N.H.), all of whom have been a part of the Chargers back-to-back TCCC Championship match appearances.

Campbell led all players last season with 14 singles wins and chipped in 11 doubles wins. “Evan can play anywhere from one to six with us,” said Coach McCaffrey. “He’s talented enough to hang with the best players. He’s feisty and competitive and leaves everything on the court. He is a great team leader for morale.”

Murray went undefeated last season, posting a perfect 3-0 record in singles and he was 5-0 in doubles with three different partners. “Ryan has no problem coming to the net to attack,” said Coach McCaffrey. “He is very good at doubles and he’s going to get some chances in singles matches as well this year.”

Taylor was third on the team with 10 singles victories and tallied four wins in doubles.

“Ben has played anywhere between No. 2 through No. 5 for us,” said Coach McCaffrey. “He is probably our most talented doubles player and is working on his consistency. He has become a lot more cerebral on the court and I think that will really help his game.”

Rounding out the roster are sophomores Ben Dabush (Weston, Conn.) and Bryan Racz (Stratton, Vt.) and freshman Matthew Larson (Franconia, N.H.).

Dabush tallied seven wins in singles play and added eight doubles victories last year.

“Ben really improved his game this past year and played number one for us this past fall,” said Coach McCaffrey. “He is amazing at the baseline and has one of the most beautiful games technically and mechanically in the conference.”
Racz finished last season perfect with a 3-0 record in singles play.

“Bryan has an amazing forehand, one of the best on our team,” said Coach McCaffrey. “He played a few matches for us last year at No. 6 and we are looking for good things from him this year with more opportunities.

“Matthew has been an excellent addition to our team. He’ll play in some doubles matches and some singles matches and he has great touch.”

The Chargers have another challenging schedule ahead of them this spring. “We have spring break in Orlando and we have some Top 25 competition in the University of Rochester and the University of Indianapolis,” said Coach McCaffrey. “We also have a tough TCCC schedule with Roger Williams, Salve Regina, the reigning TCCC Champions and the addition of Western New England to the conference. We are hoping for the kind of success that has become the staple of men’s tennis at Colby-Sawyer.”

Sibling: Sean (16).

Brendan received Second-Team All-TCCC accolades as well as Second-Team All-TCCC doubles for the spring 2007 season by The Commonwealth Coast Conference.

Born: Justin M. Tardif on April 23, 1986 to Fred and Michelle Tardif
Siblings: Fours sisters, 2 brothers

Justin was selected as Colby-Sawyer’s Most Valuable Player for both the 2006 & 2007 seasons. He also received Honorable Mention All-TCCC for the 2006 & 2007 seasons by The Commonwealth Coast Conference. Justin was selected as the captain for the 2008 spring season. A History major, Justin is looking to help young adults find their way in the world.

Team Sportsmanship Award
Colby-Sawyer 2005
Established in 1984, The Commonwealth Coast Conference provides each student-athlete with a positive experience in their pursuit of excellence, through high academic standards, quality competition, and a meaningful student life. The conference sponsors intercollegiate competition among its members in a variety of sports and supports the NCAA Division III philosophy.

Originally a conference for just men’s basketball, play began in 1984 and included seven teams; Anna Maria, Coast Guard Academy, Curry, Emerson, Hellenic, Salve Regina and Wentworth.

Roger Williams joined the conference in the spring of 1985 and Hellenic withdrew that fall, as the conference retained seven members. Also added in 1985 was a men’s cross country championship.

Women’s basketball and men’s soccer were added as conference sports in 1986. Also in ’86, Gordon joined the conference fold, becoming its eighth member.

In the fall of 1989, Regis College joined the conference and a softball championship was added. In the fall of that same year, New England College took Emerson’s place in the conference.

Over the next several years, four more teams were added, including Eastern Nazarene (1992), Colby-Sawyer and Nichols (1994), and the University of New England (1999), putting the conference membership at 13.

Over the years the conference also grew in the number of championships it offered, until the 2006-07 school year when it sponsored 15 championships in 10 different sports.

In the fall of 2007, the conference added its 14th member, Western New England. In 2007 the conference also saw the addition of it’s first full-time commissioner, Gregg Kaye.

Home of the Chargers

Dedicated in the fall of 2001, the Kelsey Tennis Courts are some of the finest outdoor courts in New England and serve as the home of the Colby-Sawyer men’s and women’s tennis programs. Recently refinished in U.S. Open blue, the six courts offer a stunning view of Mt. Kearsarge and the surrounding area.

Also included in Colby-Sawyer’s outdoor athletic facilities are the Kelsey Athletic Fields, featuring a 120 x 80-yard soccer/lacrosse field, a multi-purpose field and a baseball field. The soccer/lacrosse field features newly added bleachers with seating for 300 spectators to sit and cheer on the Chargers. Mercer Field is another home to Colby-Sawyer’s soccer and lacrosse programs and is located directly behind Danforth and Rooke Hall.
Colby-Sawyer College is located in a spectacularly beautiful area of New Hampshire, nestled in the heart of the Dartmouth-Lake Sunapee region. The college is 90 minutes north of Boston, Mass., one hour south of the White Mountains of New Hampshire, and three and a half hours south of Montreal, Quebec. The campus has 29 buildings situated on 200 acres. Colby-Sawyer College is home to 898 undergraduate students, representing 22 states and eight foreign countries. The ratio of female students to male students is roughly two to one.
